

MERCER

European Membership Programme

The membership package for regional and global
HR professionals

Consulting. Outsourcing. Investments.

Compensation. Benefits. Mobility. Networking. Professional development.

What's in it for you?

- Want access to the latest information?
- Want to network with peers and meet industry experts at 'must attend' events?
- Want to get value for money when sourcing your data needs?

Mercer's European Membership Programme was created especially for organisations and individuals managing compensation, benefits and expatriate activities within the EMEA region.

Annual subscription offers a range of service options and gives you the flexibility to choose the membership package that best suits your organisation's specific requirements.

Being part of the European Membership Programme enables you to join a network of organisations and provides you access to information and services at a fraction of the price.

The Programme

Flexibility to suit your needs

The European Membership Programme (EMP) offers a range of features and benefits, including:

- Access to networks and free* attendance at selected Mercer Events
- The latest Mercer publications at no extra cost*
- Flexibility to choose the package most appropriate to your organisation
- Attractive pricing scheme for additional publications and events
- Up-to-date information on the latest industry trends and developments

The EMP comes in three packages – Standard, Advanced or Global – which all offer flexible features at a cost-effective price.

Membership features

Meetings, conferences and networking

Complimentary attendance for one delegate (or more, depending on the package purchased) at Europe's premier information membership conferences, including the Expatriate Management Forum (April) and the EMEA Compensation and Benefits conference (October). Other events are available as part of the package and full details can be found on www.imercer.com.

Global insights publications

A range of specially selected reports covering a range of subjects are available within each package. Members can also purchase additional publications at discounted pricing.

Market pricings

Access to Mercer's professional market pricing analysts when you purchase the Advanced or Global packages.

Members' privilege pricing

Discount entitlement on the full range of publications and events offered by Mercer's Information Product Solutions business, depending on the package purchased.

How to join

Simple. Complete the attached application form and we will contact you directly. Alternatively, if you have questions, call client services on +48 22 434 5383 or contact your local Mercer representative.
